Introduction

To supply leftover food to the poor is known as food rescue, food recovery, or surplus food redistribution. These terms describe the practice of collecting edible food that would otherwise be wasted from sources like restaurants and grocery stores and giving it to those in need.

1.1 Project Overview

We are using Salesforce to connect food donors with NGOs and

1.2 Purpose

The purpose of this project is to utilize Salesforce technology to collect and distribute leftover food from donors to the poor, helping to reduce food waste and alleviate hunger through an organized, automated, and transparent system.

Conclusion :

By leveraging the Salesforce platform, the project successfully established a streamlined and transparent system for managing surplus food donations. Through efficient coordination with volunteers and timely delivery to beneficiaries, the project effectively addressed food insecurity while maximizing the utilization of available resources.
